Party City Animatic

For this project, I had to create an animatic for a Party City commercial. I used the song “September” by Earth, Wind, & Fire to play in the beginning, as a subtle hint that it’s still September. The Spooky Scary Skeleton man creeps up behind me and points at the clock on my laptop, right as it turns midnight. The start of October begins.

Programs Used

Putting ideas into motion

I'm accepting any kind of small motion graphic work, from short commercials to animated logos. My work isn't limited to animations, as I do drawings as well.
